

There is no indication that the following encounter between Caiaphus and Pilate actually took place.

But the story you are about to hear is consistent with the Biblical record.

“Fighting Against God”

Acts 5:12-42

The year is 32 AD –

about two years after the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth.

You are looking in on a room in the Fortress Antonia in Jerusalem.

Governor Pontius Pilate is alone.

Caiaphus, the Jewish high priest, has been summoned by Pilate.

